with the PAPER

"Tuscany and Immigration: Replicable Best Practice"

This presentation explores the reception and integration of migrants in Tuscany, with a focus on identifying and analyzing replicable good practices. It examines the evolution of immigration and asylum policies in Italy, highlighting the shift towards a multi-level governance framework and the crucial role of the third sector in integration efforts. The presentation also highlights specific projects and initiatives in Tuscany that address various aspects of migrant integration, including healthcare, social assistance, intercultural mediation, legal assistance, language learning, employment inclusion, social cohesion, and housing autonomy. This paper is presented within the framework of the project "Global Social Work and Human Mobility: Comparative Studies on Local Government and Good Social Work Practices in the Euro-Mediterranean Region" (Global-ANSWER-H2020-MSCA-RISE-GA-872209). In particular, it focuses on Case Studies 8 and 9 from the University of Florence, titled "Comparative Case Studies on the Regional Reception Systems for Migrants in Tuscany and Andalusia".
